

The Security Cooperation Information Portal A View into the Future

Mr. Tom Sippel
DSCA Information Technology
Directorate

Portal - Background

- Problem: Security Cooperation Legacy System Information is available to International Customers and DoD Users, but.....
  - Difficult to use multiple systems/passwords
  - No consolidated web-based "Tri-Service" View
- Solution: Explore options Build a "Portal"
  - Portal User Group (PUG) was formed with U.S.
     Military Department (MILDEP), International Customer User Group (ICUG), and Foreign Procurement Group (FPG) representatives
  - Development underway

Portal - What's a "Portal"?

- Technique for ......
  - Extracting and assembling corporate information
  - From seemingly incompatible
     Enterprise Legacy Systems/Databases
  - Providing that consolidated information to the end user, with a common "look and feel"
  - Via a secure Internet or NIPRNET connection

Portal - Why a Portal?

- Promotes "One Stop Shopping" for triservice information - centralized data store
- Is easily customized to, and customizable by, the user
- Provides a short-term solution for international & DoD customer information needs, prior to the development & deployment of CEMIS

Portal - What will the Portal provide?

- Queries and reports will provide the status of:
  - FMS case, case line, and payment schedules
  - Requisitions
  - Supply Discrepancy Reports (SDRs)
- Inputs, in tri-service recognized formats
  - Requisitions
  - Cancellation requests, modifiers, follow-ups
  - SDRs (with attachments)
  - Freight tracking transactions by freight forwarder
- Links
  - To DoD and commercial web sites

Portal - What's the benefit?

- First "Tri-Service" consolidated web-based view of Legacy data
- First International Customer view of DSAMS data
- Supports Business Process Reengineering (BPR) initiatives
- Potential cost, manpower, and time savings
- Consistent user interface and singular access
- Provides a secure avenue for information exchange
- Provides a short term information solution pending CEMIS development

DSCA

- Will initiate a Portal publicity campaign
- Will provide Registration Request forms electronically to perspective users
- Will establish User Access records and provide SecurID tokens, where required

Portal Users/Customers

Will "authenticate" users prior to DSCA establishing Customer portal accounts
